- Andreas Dill, Chairman (as from 15 April 2021)
- Erich Haefeli
- Norma Corio (as from 16 July 2021)

The Audit Committee assists the Board in supervising the management of the Company, particularly with respect to financial and legal matters as well as in relation to compliance with internal business policies and codes of practice.

Remuneration Committee
In accordance with the Articles of Incorporation, Cicor has a Remuneration Committee that consists of one or more members of the Board of Directors, who are elected individually by the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders. The following members have been elected:
- Daniel Frutig, Chairman (as from 15 April 2021)
- Andreas Dill (Chairman until 15 April 2021)
- Konstantin Ryzhkov (as from 16 July 2021)
- Rudiger Merz (until 16 July 2021)

The roles and responsibilities of the Remuneration Committee are defined in detail by the Board of Directors. More information on their duties is provided in the compensation report.

Operating methods of the Board and the Committees
Between 1 January and 31 December 2021, the Board met for 22 ordinary Board meetings as well as two phone conferences. The CEO and/or the CFO of the Group attended all meetings. On a selective basis, external advisors also participated in some meetings on specific subjects. The meetings of the Board lasted on average six hours. For each Board meeting, the members were provided with adequate material in advance to prepare for the items on the agenda. At each ordinary meeting, the CEO or the CFO presented the results of Cicor Technologies Ltd. and its segments in detail. The members discussed the results comprehensively and, if required, instructed the CEO or the CFO to take necessary actions or to draw up plans for measures.

The Audit Committee held three meetings in 2021. The CFO of the Group participated in each conference. In addition, these meetings were attended by the auditor in charge. The meetings lasted on average one hour.

The Remuneration Committee held nine meetings in 2021. The meetings lasted on average one hour.

3.5 Definition of Areas of Responsibility
The duties and responsibilities of the Board and the Group Management are defined as follows:
The Board holds the ultimate decision-making authority and decides on all matters which have not been reserved for or conferred upon another governing body of the Company by law, the Articles of Incorporation or regulations regarding the delegation of Management of the Company.

The Board has the following non-transferable and indefeasible duties in particular:
- overall governance of the Company and the Group, including formulating medium- and long-term strategies, planning priorities and laying down guidelines for corporate policy;
- approving the annual Group budgets and medium- to long-term Group business and investment plans;
- establishing the basic organizational structure;
- defining the guidelines for accounting, financial controlling and financial planning systems;
- taking decisions on transactions of substantial strategic significance;
- appointing and removing those responsible for managing the Company’s affairs and acting as its agent, in particular the CEO, the CFO and other members of the Group Management;
- appointing and removing the members of the committees of the Board (Remuneration Committee is elected by the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders’);
- overall supervision of the bodies and officers responsible for the management of the Company;
- drawing up the annual and interim reports, preparing the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders’;
- notifying the court in the event of overindebtedness;
- proposing and implementing capital increases and amending the Articles of Incorporation;
- checking the professional qualifications of the external Group auditors.

The Board conferred management functions in the manner provided by the organizational regulation to the CEO or the Group Management. Thus, it follows the Company’s general principle according to which all executive bodies and officers delegate their duties and powers to the hierarchically lowest possible body or officer that possesses the knowledge and expertise necessary to make appropriate decisions. The operational Group Management is responsible for the day-to-day operational business of the Group. Its main duties consist of:
- conducting day-to-day business of the Group in compliance with the applicable laws, Articles of Incorporation, regulations and instructions;
- implementing the Group strategy;
- preparing and executing the resolutions of the Board and ensuring their Group-wide implementation;
- reporting all matters to be dealt with by the Board and the committees;
- accounting and analyzing of the monthly results and semianual and annual accounts on Group and divisional levels as well as implementing the required internal control measures.

3.6 INFORMATION AND CONTROL
INSTRUMENTS TOWARDS THE GROUP MANAGEMENT AND RISK MANAGEMENT

The Board receives annotated key data of all segments within the framework of a Group-wide institutionalized reporting system. The format of the data is defined within a MIS (management information system).

Each month, the management information system summarizes in an aggregated format the most important key figures. Every quarter, it presents comprehensive financial statements in line with the requirements set for the year-end. These reports are available to the Group Management in full length and in a condensed format to the Board of Directors.

The Board analyzes such data in detail in its meetings. At each ordinary meeting of the Board, the CEO and the CFO inform on the operational day-to-day business and all important business events. The members of the Board and the Board committees are entitled to request information on all Company-related issues. See section 3.4 for additional information on the work methods of the Board and the committees.

In addition to the above described management information system, a risk management system was introduced in 2008 and a new state-of-the-art Risk Management Tool was implemented in 2021. Risk management is a fundamental element of Cicor’s business practice at all levels and encompasses different types of risks. It has been integrated into the controlling and reporting process. Material risks are identified and quantified in workshops and discussed with the executive management and the Board of Directors. The risk management process will be repeated regularly, at least once a year.

6.3 CONVOCATION OF THE SHAREHOLDERS’ MEETING
Shareholders’ Meetings are convened by the Board and, if required, by the auditors at the latest 20 days before the date of the meeting. The Annual General Meeting of Shareholders’ is held at the latest within six months of the close of the financial year. Shareholders registered in the share register with voting rights representing an aggregate of at least 10 % of the share capital may request in writing, setting forth the items to be discussed and the proposals to be 6.4 AGENDA
Shareholders registered in the share register with voting rights, whose combined shareholdings represent an aggregate nominal value of at least CHF 1 million, may request that an item be included in the agenda of a Shareholders’ Meeting. Such a request shall be made in writing at least 60 days before the meeting and shall specify the items and motions to be included in the agenda.

6.5 ENTRY INTO THE SHARE REGISTER
Computershare Schweiz AG keeps the company’s share register which contains the names and addresses of shareholders and the number of shares they have registered. After dispatch of the invitation to the Shareholders’ Meeting, no entries can be made in the share register until the day after the Shareholders’ Meeting has taken place.

7. CHANGES OF CONTROL AND MEASURES

7.1 DUTY TO MAKE AN OFFER
The company does not have an opt-in or opt-out clause in its Articles of Incorporation, meaning that the mandatory bid obligation of the Swiss Stock Exchange Act is triggered if a shareholder or a group of shareholders acting in concert acquire more than one third of the outstanding shares of the company.

7.2 CLAUSES ON CHANGES OF CONTROL
As of 31 December 2021, there are no specific clauses included in agreements and schemes benefitting members of the Board or Group Management in the event of a change of control situation.

8. AUDITORS

8.1 DURATION OF THE MANDATE AND TERM OF OFFICE OF THE LEAD AUDITOR
The Annual General Meeting of Shareholders’ elects the auditors for a term of one year. On 15 April 2021, the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders mandated KPMG, Cicor Technologies Ltd’s Group auditor since 2007, for an additional year. KPMG or a subsidiary of the KPMG Group audits the consolidated and statutory financial statements. The auditor in charge since 2020 of the current mandate is Kurt Stocker.

8.2 AUDITING FEES
During the year under review, KPMG charged a total of TCHF 295 (previous year: TCHF 278) for their services in connection with the auditing of consolidated and statutory financial statements.

8.3 ADDITIONAL FEES
KPMG additionally received fees of TCHF 141 (previous year: TCHF 11) for other services to the company.

8.4 SUPERVISORY AND CONTROL INSTRUMENTS PERTAINING TO THE AUDIT
The Audit Committee supervises and controls on behalf of the Board of Directors the performance and independence of the external auditors. It determines the targets of the audit and assesses the work of the external auditors and their fees. In addition, it reviews the audit result and monitors the implementation of the findings by the management.

In 2021, the Audit Committee and the external auditors met once to plan the auditing of the financial statements of the Group and its subsidiaries. In a second meeting, these financial statements, as well as the corresponding “Management Letter” formulated by external auditors, were reviewed and discussed in detail with the Audit Committee. In total, the Audit Committee had three meetings in the presence of the external auditors.
9. BLACKOUT PERIODS FOR TRADING

No members of Cicor’s Board of Directors, Group Management, leadership team and employees of Cicor Management AG may make any purchase, sale or other transaction of Cicor securities during the following periods, irrespective of whether or not such relevant person is in possession of insider information:
- during the period beginning 15 days prior to half-year or year-end (i.e. 16 June inclusive and 17 December inclusive) and ending on the evening of the day of public announcement of the related semiannual or annual financial results (i.e. trading is authorized as from the morning of the day following the day of the public announcement).

The day of public announcement of the semiannual or the annual financial results is published on Cicor’s website under “investors”. Financial results are usually published at 7.00 am CET. The only exception to this rule is the exercise of corporate share actions for shares which are already owned.

10. INFORMATION POLICY

For the benefit of its shareholders and the public interested in the business activities of the company, Cicor Technologies Ltd. pursues an open and transparent information policy. In terms of periodical as well as ad hoc reporting, the company aims to guarantee equal treatment with respect to time as well as to content. The company has a clear policy to prevent insider dealings. The corresponding guidelines contain provisions regarding the handling of confidential information to which all persons concerned within and outside of the company are subject, as well as clear instructions regarding time and form of the respective publication.

From internal availability to approval of the semiannual or annual results by the Board, the company and its management refrain from communicating to the investing public any qualitative and quantitative statements and information which might give an indication as to the expected sales or results. After the Board meeting, in which the semiannual and annual reports are approved, the general public is informed in summary about the course of business by means of an ad hoc announcement. Furthermore, the company informs its shareholders, the media, financial analysts and other interested parties by using the following publications and channels:
- annual and interim reports in accordance with Swiss GAAP FER;
- presentation of annual results;
- Shareholders’ Meeting;
- press releases as well as publications of share price-sensitive facts (ad hoc publicity).

The 2022 Annual Shareholders’ Meeting will be held on 12 April 2022. The interim report is planned to be published on 11 August 2022.
